How do I provide instructions?

Assetplan Financial Services Pty Ltd advisers will act on your instructions following your acceptance of their recommendations in the SOA. They and we should not act independently of your specific instructions. Instructions you provide should be communicated to your adviser in writing. These instructions should be forwarded in an email, text, fax or posted letter to your adviser.

Tailored, general and ongoing advice

Assetplan Financial Services Pty Ltd advisers usually provide advice tailored to your individual circumstances and also have the capacity to implement the advice they give, except where this may require the use of other professionals (accountants and lawyers). You may choose to enter into an agreement with your adviser to provide you with both initial advice and ongoing advice. If appropriate, we may also provide general advice only, where you are ultimately responsible for ensuring that this advice is suitable to your particular needs, objectives and financial situation. In this case, you should also obtain any relevant product disclosure statements to assist in this purpose.

Should I transfer investment monies to my adviser's account?

No. Assetplan Financial Services Pty Ltd does not allow advisers to receive your investment funds into their own account or into any Assetplan Financial Services Pty Ltd account. You should only transfer investment funds for a financial product to the approved financial institution that issues the financial product (as specified in the Product Disclosure Statement or similar document). You should never transfer investment funds to any other entity or person.

You should also not sign any blank forms or appoint your adviser as your attorney (or authorised signatory). You should not appoint any other person as your attorney or authorised signatory unless you have received legal advice.

What information should I provide to my adviser?

You will need to provide your adviser with your personal objectives and your current financial situation including details of assets, liabilities, income and living expenses. This can best be accomplished by completing a Assetplan Financial Services Pty Ltd Client Data Form. The amount and type of information we will require from you depends on what financial services you require.

It is important that you provide us with complete and accurate information about your current personal circumstances and financial situation.

If you choose not to supply the required information or provide us with inaccurate information, the advice you receive may not be appropriate to your needs, objectives and financial situation.

You should read the warnings contained in the SOA, check any assumptions we make and review the basis for our advice carefully before making a decision about whether to proceed with the advice. You should also obtain and read any relevant product disclosure statements prior to applying for a financial product.

How will I pay for the services provided?

Your adviser's specific method of remuneration and fees are detailed in their Adviser Profile. The exact remuneration and fee details will be disclosed to you in the SOA.

All fees will be payable to Assetplan Financial Services Pty Ltd which then passes on the appropriate fee to your adviser based their specific business model.

How are any commissions, fees or other benefits calculated for providing the financial services?

The three stages of financial planning are Initial Advice, Implementation and Ongoing Reviews. There may be a separate fee for each of the three stages. Your adviser's remuneration structure for each advice stage will be found in their Adviser Profile and the dollar value disclosed to you in the SOA.

All commissions are payments made by the insurance product provider and are calculated as a percentage of the premium paid on insurance products. Commissions are of two types: (a) upfront or initial; and (b) ongoing or trail.

Fees can be based on a percentage of funds invested or funds under advice, hourly rates multiplied by the hours worked, an agreed dollar amount for the value of the specific service being performed, or a combination of these.

Ongoing fees can be collected by platforms and other product providers, percentage-based fees are normally in the range of 0.5% to 1.0% pa depending on the size of the portfolio.

Example: A portfolio of $300,000 may be subject to an ongoing portfolio review fee of 0.5% per annum paid quarterly. This would amount to $1,500 per annum.

Ongoing insurance commissions can be up to 33%.

The precise amount of all these commissions and any other fees charged will be disclosed in your SOA.

What should I know about any risks of the investments or investment strategies you recommend to me?

Assetplan Financial Services Pty Ltd advisers may only recommend to you investment products that are researched, analysed and approved by Assetplan Financial Services Pty Ltd. Your adviser should explain any significant risks of investments and financial planning strategies. If the adviser does not do so, you should contact us to explain those risks to you.

Cost of Advisory Services

An initial meeting to discuss your financial circumstances and future goals is free of charge. At this meeting your Adviser will establish how they can assist you and gather the information required to prepare a financial plan.

Your Adviser will discuss the fee basis with you and agree on the method of charging prior to proceeding.

Initial fee payments can be made by way of a flat fee, a fee based on the funds under advice, a fee from the brokerage paid by the product issuers, or as per invoiced.

Ongoing advice that includes portfolio reviews may be charged on a percentage fee basis which varies according to the portfolio amount, complexity and structure, or as a fixed dollar amount as agreed between you and your adviser.

All fees are fully disclosed in the Statement of Advice and Product Disclosure Statement prior to any charges being incurred.

Typical fee ranges are detailed in the following table:

Preparation of Advice Document (depending on complexity)	$550 to $3,300
Ongoing Advice Partnership We utilise fee for service packages to cater for the differing complexities of your circumstances.	$250 to $15,000

Fees are negotiable and are charged on a funds under management or flat fee model where appropriate.	0.55% to 1.10%
Insurance Upfront and ongoing commission % based on amount of premium and is paid by the insurance provider	66% upfront 33% ongoing

All fees include 10% GST.

All fees are payable to Assetplan Financial Services and after covering expenses any residual profit is distributed to the servicing adviser.

As a shareholder of Assetplan Financial Services, Colin is entitled to profit share and/or dividend if and when paid.
